Angol felelés

1. Nature of work
   - Blue collar:
     - involve manual labour
     - skilled trades
     - work with their hands
     - perform tasks
     - construction
     - manufacturing
     - maintenance
   - White collar:
     - involve:
       - professional
       - managerial
       - administrative
       - clerical

         Work
     - employed in offices
     - tasks
     - analysis
     - decision making

2. Skills and Education
   - Blue collar:
     - require specialized skills
     - vocational training
     - formal education beyond high school is often optional
     - practical experience highly valued
   - White collar:
     - require higher level education
     - college or university degree
     - specialized knowledge
     - professional certifications are essential

3. Work environment
   - White collar:
     - typically office based
     - comfortable environment
     - usually indoors
     - may involve the use of computers
   - Blue collar
     - found in industrial settings
     - construction sites
     - workshops
     - work outdoors
     - may be exposed to various weather conditions

4. Income and benefits
    - Blue collar:
        - may earn hourly wages or salary
        - benefits:
            - health insurance
            - retirement plan
    - White collar:
        - salaried compensation
        - additional benefits:
            - health insurance
            - retirement plan
            - bonuses

5. Career progression
    - Blue collar:
        - gaining experience and skills over time
        - leading to supervisory roles or entrepreneurship
    - White collar:
        - climbing the corporate ladder
        - acquiring additional education or certifications
        - demonstrating leadership

6. Clothing
    - White collar:
        - Attire:
            - typically wear business or professional attire
        - Colours:
            - more subdued and conservative
        - Accessories:
            - scarves
            - formal jewellery
        - Variety:
            - dress code
            - business casual dress code
    - Blue collar
        - Attire:
            - durable and practical clothing
            - suitable for manual labour
            - coveralls
            - suitable for manual labour
        - Colours:
            - darker
            - hide dirt and stains
        - Safety gear:
            - wear additional safety equipment
            - helmets, gloves, vests

- Durability:
    - Clothing is chosen for durability and functionality